VANCOURIER

VAN HIGH SCHOOL
VAN, WEST VIRGINIA
VOLUME XXV

THIS YEAR AT . . .

Fellow Classmates,

We, the '73-'74 Vancourier Staff, hope that we have succeeded in our goal: to capture some of the precious memories of this school year.

We present to you the following words as an introduction to this edition:

Our friends may pass away -
Life can change from day to day;
But, one will forever find,
Deep in the heart and mind,
Dim memories of the past -
Of hopes that didn't last.

May fond memories so dear,
Be clearly recorded here.

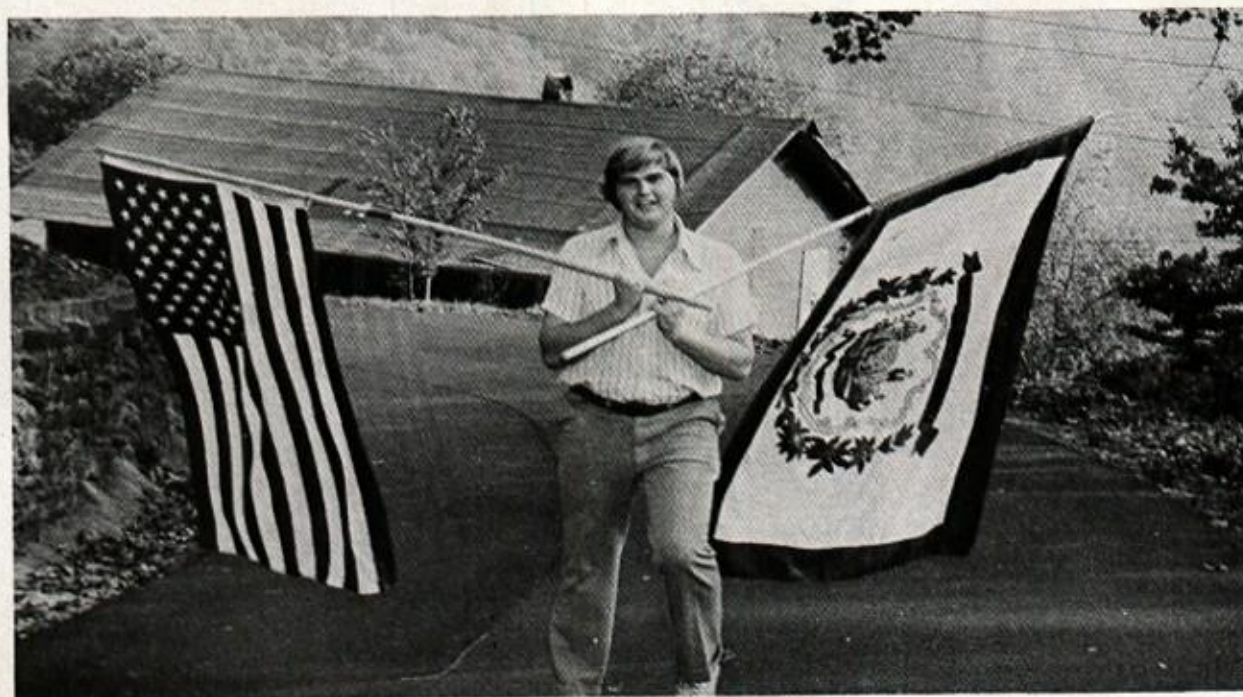

Sincerely,

Pam Jarrell

IN MEMORY

Madison, W. Va.
November 7, 1973

Members of the Faculty and Student body:

Please know that even though he suffered more than any of us will ever know, he never lost his spirit, his sense of humor, or his determination to return to school.

I am sure that if he left even a small part of this courage with you, his life was not lived in vain.

Our sincere thanks to each of you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Ralph Miller and Betsy

Mrs. Ralph Miller and Betsy

To everyone concerned enough to read:

Mr. Miller was not only a teacher, he was a friend. He not only gave us knowledge from books, but also things that could only be given from someone who had lived and learned. He gave understanding, concern and love.

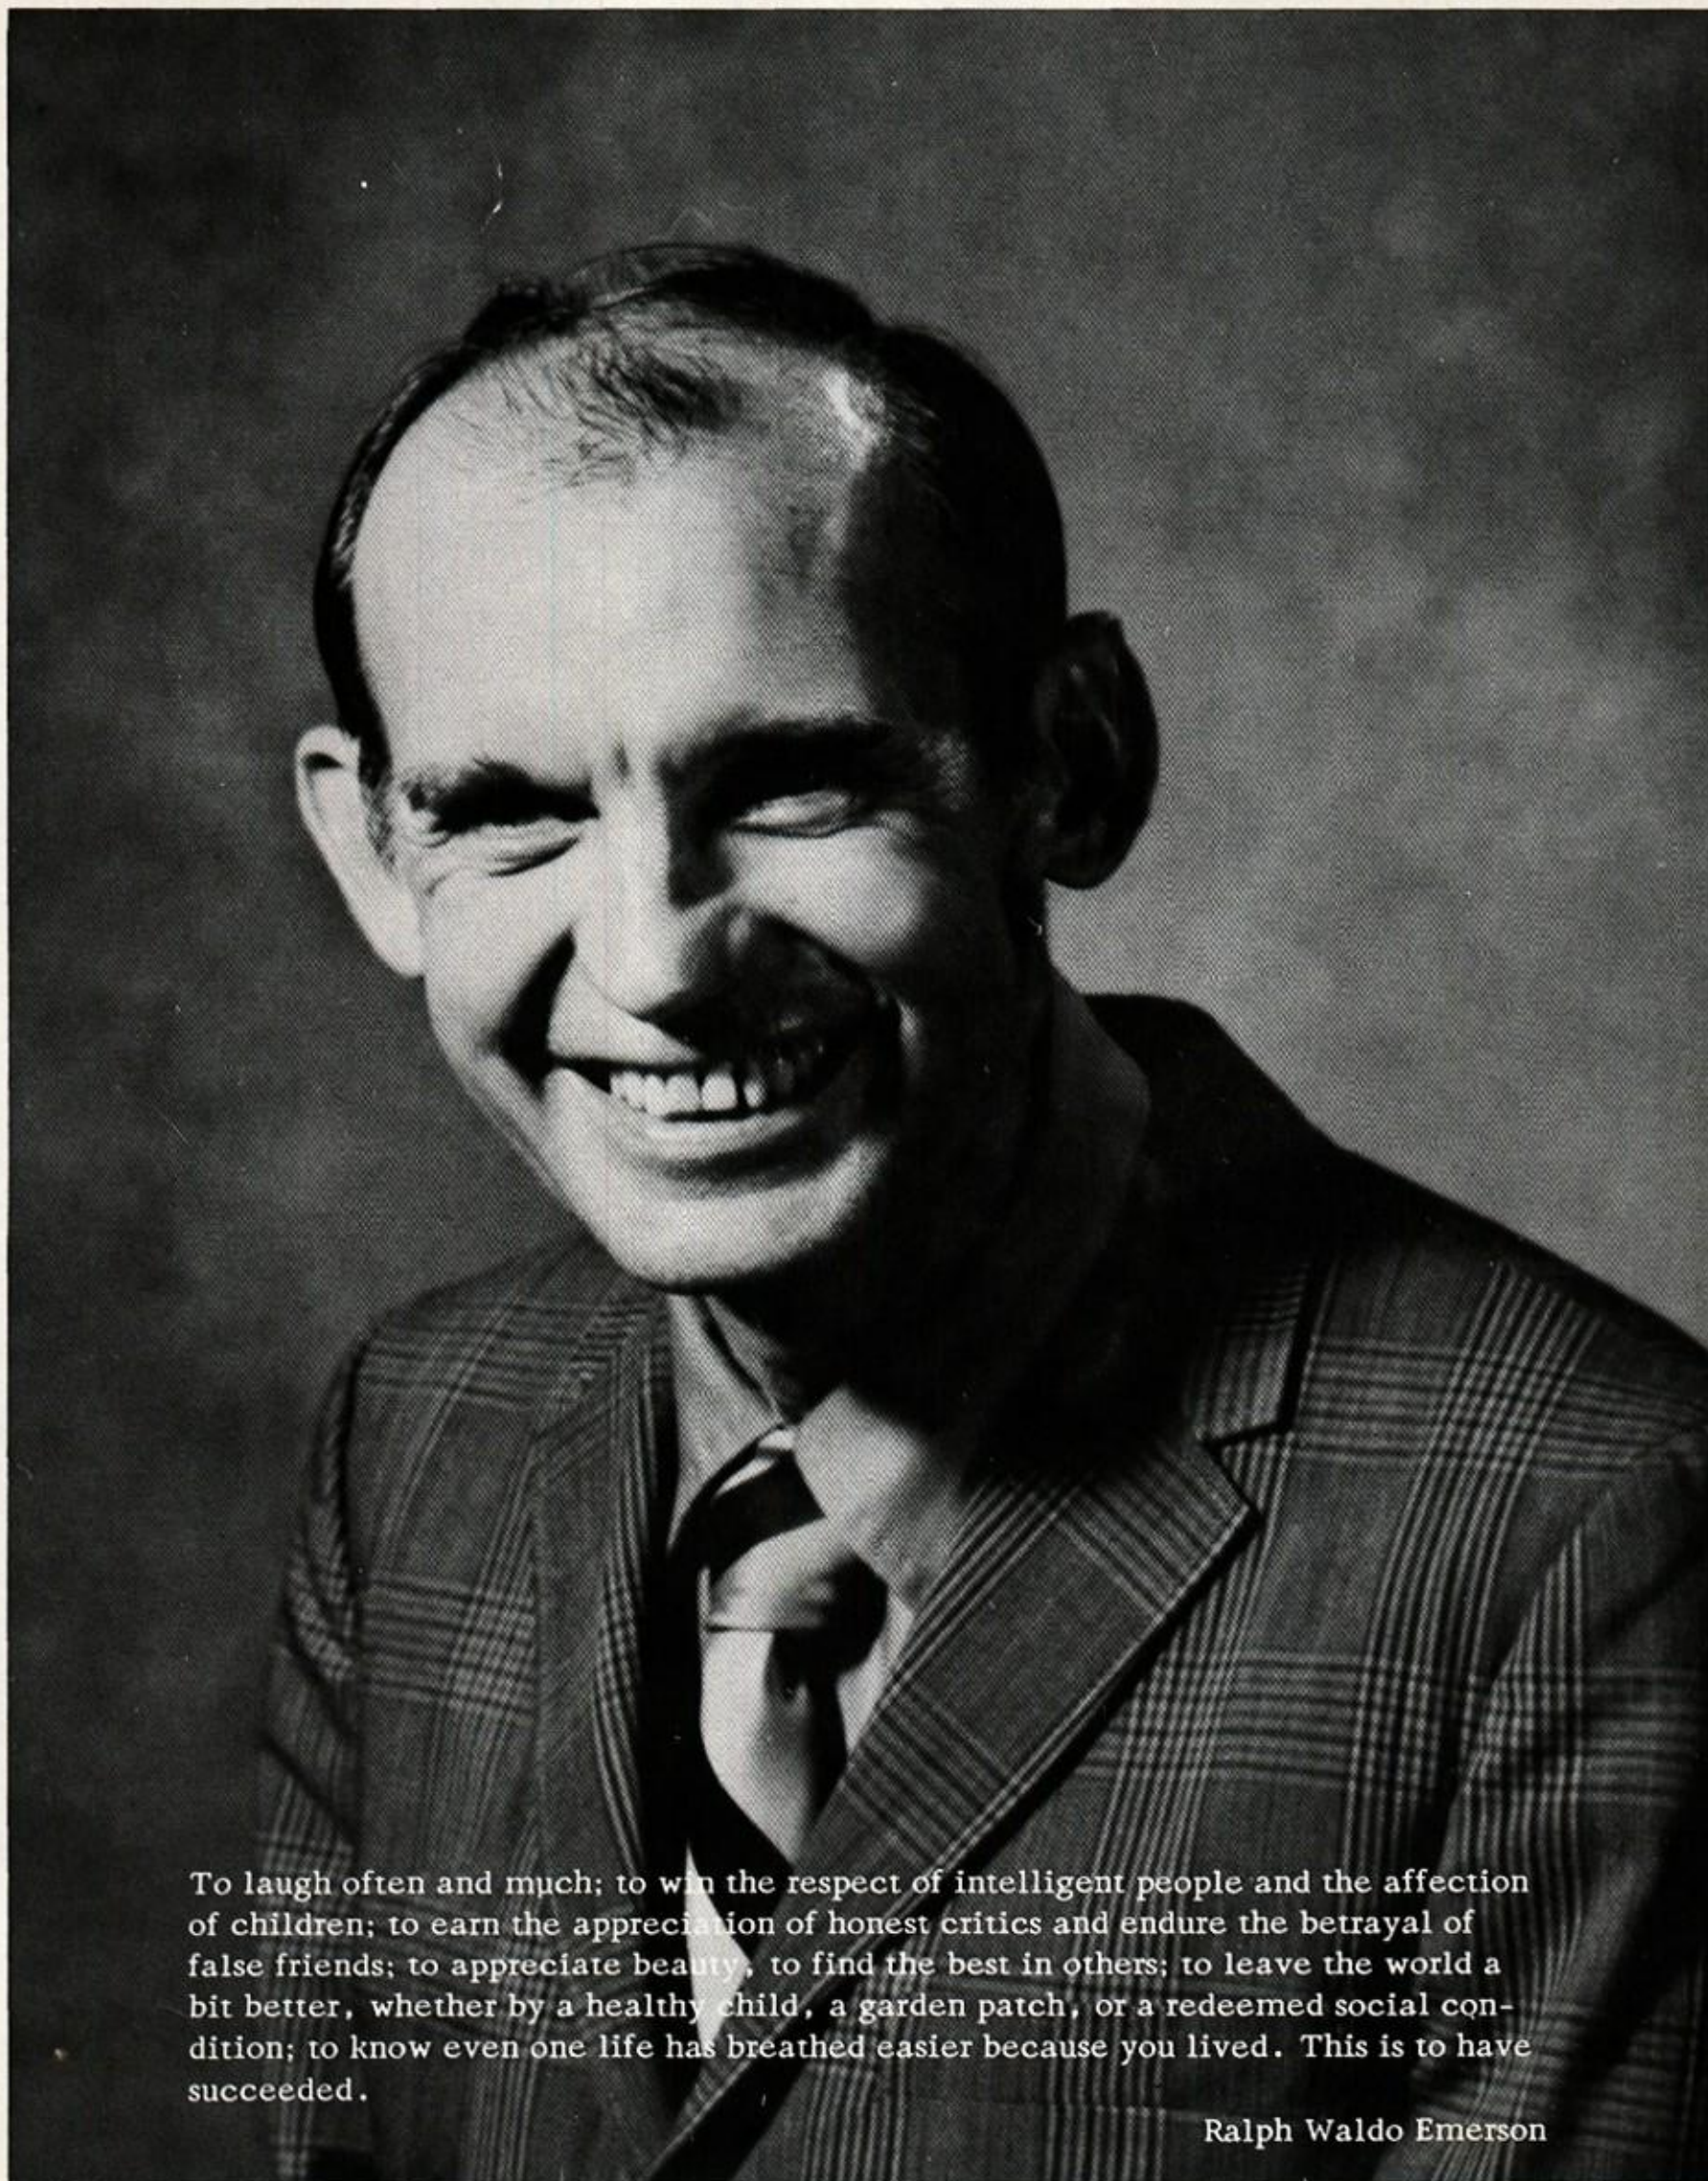

He was respected not by just a few, but by all the students at Van.

A part of him remains with us - his gift of understanding - that is, no matter what goes wrong, there's something always worth living for. You just have to find the courage within yourself to do it.

Mrs. Miller, his life was not lived in vain.

Sincerely,

We who have learned

To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you lived. This is to have succeeded.

What is a yearbook?

We, the VANCOURIER Staff of 1973-74, can say from experience that a yearbook is long hours (often after school, on Saturdays), hard work and patience.

What is a yearbook?

A yearbook is not just the shadow of a year at VHS.

A yearbook is

FOREVER.

MR. JARRELL

Mr. Harold Jarrell, the new Principal of Van High School, has brought responsibility and a well-coordinated total educational environment to our school. Through his many efforts school is more than books, bells, ballgames, and fire drills.

An alumnus of VHS, Mr. Jarrell completed his undergraduate work at Morris Harvey College and graduate work at Marshall University. Before coming to VHS he was Vice-Principal and Dean of Boys at Scott High School.

His efficient management and continuing interest in the students and faculty of VHS are sincerely appreciated by everyone.

TEACHER AIDE

"There is no real wealth but labor."
Jerry Chafin is a valuable asset to our school. Besides her personality, her work is vital to the functioning of Van High School.

SECRETARY

"A really busy person never knows how much she weighs."
Sally Branham is always busy keeping the office in order, but never too busy to help or too tired to smile.

FORMER SECRETARY

"Smiles form the channels of future tears."
That's how the VHS students felt when Rhonda Toler left. She always had a cheerful smile for anyone who came into the office.
